1 CROSSING THE BORDER

If you cross the border of the Republic of Poland, you are obliged to have the following documents:

1.1 A VALID TRAVEL DOCUMENT.

It is a document recognized by Poland, giving the right to cross the border, issued by the authority of the foreign state, Polish authority or international organization or the entity authorized by the authority of the foreign state or the foreign authority acting with state power, e.g. a passport, temporary travel document, refugee or stateless person travel document, travel document issued by international organization or laissez-passer. Possession of a valid travel document is required during the crossing of the Polish border in general every time.

1.2 A VALID VISA OR OTHER VALID DOCUMENT, GIVING THE RIGHT TO ENTER THE TERRITORY OF POLAND AND TO STAY ON THIS TERRITORY IF THEY ARE REQUIRED.

The next condition is to have a valid visa or other valid document, based on which you can enter the territory of Poland. The other documents giving the right to cross the border may be residence documents (also with the annotations "ICT") and national visas issued by the member states of EU on the basis of national law. The other documents issued by Poland are: temporary residence permit, permanent residence permit or the long term EU resident's residence permit or national long-term visas, granted and issued on the basis of the Act on Foreigners provisions. The residence documents and national visas issued by the other member states of EU also give the right to enter the territory of the Republic of Poland.

1.2.1 VISA

You may have a national visa or Schengen visa. If you apply for a national visa, you have to submit the following documents:

- filled-in application for issuing a national visa;
- current photo;
- documents confirming: purpose and conditions of planned stay; possession of sufficient financial means for covering the costs of maintenance during the entire planned stay on the territory of the Republic of Poland as well as for the return travel to the country of origin or stay or for transit to the third country, which grants a permit for entering its territory, or the possibility of obtaining such means according to the law; possession of health insurance coverage in the meaning of the provisions of the Act of August 27, 2004 on health care services financed from public funds or medical travel insurance; credibility of foreigner's declaration to leave the territory of the Republic of Poland before the expiration date of visa and other circumstances provided in the application.

Additionally, your travel document (passport) must meet the following conditions:

- its expiration dates ends not earlier than after 3 months of the expiration date of the visa you apply for;
- contains at least two empty pages;
- was issued within the last 10 years.

National visa

The national visa is marked with the symbol „D”, the national visa is issued in the situation when you plan on staying on the territory of Poland for a period longer than 90 days (during one or several entries) within the period of the visa validity. It is a long-term visa. The period for which a visa is valid starts no later than 3 months since its issuance and does not exceed 1 year. The national visa entitles you to stay in Poland for the entire period indicated in it (but no longer than one year). You may stay also in the Schengen Zone for up to 90 days in every 180 day period based on this visa (within its validity period), without obtaining visas from the authorities of other specific member states of the Schengen Zone. The visas are granted due to an application which is in general considered by the consul office of a proper member state appropriate for the place of your stay. The visa in a form of a visa sticker is placed in your travel document.

Schengen visa

The Schengen visa is marked with symbol „C” and gives you the right to stay on the territory of country of destination and to travel through the whole territory of the Schengen Zone if it is uniform. The Schengen visa is issued, if you plan on staying on the territory of Poland for a period not exceeding 90 days within every 180 day period (during one or several entries), starting since the date of entry. The visas are granted due to an application which is in general considered by the consul office of a proper member state appropriate for the place of your stay. The Schengen visa on the border is issued by the commandant of the Polish Border Guard post.

The foreigners who have the right to free visa travel

The main principle of free visa travel is a fact that your entire stay exempted from the visa obligation on the territory of all member states of the Schengen Zone (including Poland) may not exceed 90 days within the every 180 day period (every such period starts on the very first day of the entry to the Schengen Zone, even for 1 day). In the course of stay without the need to obtain visa, you should meet the following conditions:

- have a valid biometrical passport;
- be able to justify the purpose and conditions of the planned stay and

If you stay on the territory of the Republic of Poland based on an international agreement about the abolition of the visa requirement, then according to the regulation of the Council (EC) no 539/2001 of March 15, 2001 you are obliged to leave Poland before the date determined in the international agreement, in the unilateral abolition of the visa requirements or in the regulation.
